

A Service of Remembrance for Charfield

Sunday 8th November 2015 – 10:50.

This year the Standard is carried by Scot Curtis (Royal Navy)

The Service starts at the War Memorial – led by Rev. Christopher Mason.

Minister Let us remember with gratitude those who, in the cause of peace and the service of their fellow men, died for their country in time of war.

The names of the fallen will be read – by Mark Rowse (Royal Navy) – followed by placing of Wreaths on War Memorial by Representatives of Various Village Organisations in the following order:

- Royal British Legion (Jonathan Parker – Royal Navy)
- Parish Council (Mark Rosher – Chairman)
- St Johns Church
- The Chapel
- 1st Woodend Scouts
- Memorial Hall
- Rosemary Berry (resident on behalf of late husband)

Mark Rowse They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
We will remember them.

Laurence Binyon

All We will remember them.

Bugler sounds the 'Last Post' Richard Hancock

THE SILENCE

Bugler sounds 'Reveille' Richard Hancock

Mark Rowse      When you go home, tell them of us and say:
                                 'For your tomorrow we gave our today.'
                                 The Kohima Epitaph

Minister      Ever-lasting God, we remember those whom you have gather from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
                         may that same peace calm our fears,
                         bring justice to all peoples
                         and establish harmony among the nations,
                         through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Those that want to – process to the church.
